DESCENDANTS OF JACOB WILSON

BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS

This volume traces over thirteen hundred individuals named Wilson back to their immigrant ancestor, JACOB (V01-001) WILSON who was a resident of Muddy River (now Brookline) Massachusetts in 1638 and died at Braintree, Massachusetts before May of 1653. There is no previously published genealogy of this family.

Early generations of his descendants are found in the Massachusetts towns of Belchertown, Malden, Marblehead, Oxford and Spencer, in Tolland and Windham counties, Connecticut, in Addison county and scattered areas of Vermont and in isolated areas of Rhode Island.

PREFACE

Probably the first, and certainly the most prominent individual with the Wilson name to establish permanent residence in New England was the Rev. John Wilson who came in the spring of 1630 with Gov. Winthrop in the ARBELLA as the spiritual leader of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and served as the founding pastor of the First Church in Boston.

Among the thousands who followed between 1630 and 1650 in the Puritan Great Migration we can identify at least thirty persons named Wilson. James Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary [1860] lists over two hundred and fifty individuals with this name who resided here prior to 1700 and his compilation is far from complete. Some of these individuals did not marry, the families of others petered out within a few generations but many left a posterity which flourished and multiplied.

These early settlers were augmented by the influx of immigrants of Scotch ancestry who came from northern Ireland starting with five shiploads in 1715 the forerunners of a massive migration. By the time of the Revolutionary war it has been estimated that more than one-sixth of the population was of Scotch-Irish origin. Wilson was one of the most frequently encountered names in this group, an early petition from Ireland requesting land in New Hampshire on which to settle was signed by two hundred seventeen men of whom ten, over four percent of the total, were named Wilson.

The 1790 census of the New England states lists four hundred and forty families, containing over twenty-five hundred individuals with the Wilson name, the largest concentration being in New Hampshire where they accounted for one of every two hundred seventeen residents. Wilson is generally listed among the ten names most frequently encountered in New England.

Using primary sources such as Town Vital Records (VR), Land Records, Gravestone Inscriptions (GS), Probate Records, Military Records and Census Listings we have during the past thirty years assembled a data base containing the names of over forty thousand Wilsons. Information from secondary sources such as published Town Histories, Family Genealogies and Bible Records has also been used whenever it was found to be consistent with known facts, in many instances such secondary material is the only source available for later generations.

Wilsons From New England is conceived as a means to provide access to this data in the form of a series of books each of which will, insofar as is possible, trace the male line from immigrant ancestors who settled in New England during colonial times down to listings of their descendants in the 1850 census. We have included events which occurred during the years 1851 to 1900 when they come readily to hand, however only a nominal amount of time has been devoted to research in this period, consequently but a small fraction of the individuals who lived in those years are reported herein. We have not listed births after the close of the nineteenth century, such information is generally available either from family records or from official sources. Some of the volumes, such as this, cover the descendants of a single progenitor while others will cover the descendants of several unrelated immigrants who initially settled in the same geographical area.

Volume V is the first in this series to be published. It covers a family which was in New England at an early date and contains much material of historical interest associated with its members. We have found no earlier compilation relating to this particular Wilson family. The selection of a letter so far down the alphabet to designate this family was made many years ago and to change now, merely to start the series at the head of the alphabet, would involve intolerable revisions to our data base. Other volumes will be published as quickly as circumstances permit, no attempt will be made to follow an alphabetical sequence in their release.

To provide a means to reference and quickly locate each individual all persons born with the Wilson name have been given a distinctive identity consisting to two numbers separated by a hyphen. The prefix represents the number of the generation to which that person belongs starting with the immigrant ancestor as the first generation. The suffix shows the individual's sequential location within their generation. The letter, when used, designates the volume of Wilsons From New England in which that family is listed, thus Jacob (V08-039) Wilson is found in this volume as the thirty-ninth individual listed in the seventh generation being the first child in the family of David (V07-019) Wilson. Brides assume the identity of their husband. A plus sign (+) following the number indicates men who are listed again as the head of a family in the next generation.

When the generation number is replaced by a double asterisk () the name will be found in the appendix. Included therein are the names of those individuals believed, for one reason or another, to be members of this family but for whom proof of such a relationship is lacking.

Although we have striven for accuracy, our priority has been to establish family structure rather than provide absolute proof of all relationships. Thus, in the absence of indications to the contrary, we have assumed that the individual married in a town was the same one born there some twenty-odd years earlier and likewise that minors listed in the census were children of the adults with whom they were living even though in infrequent instances these assumptions may not be valid.

Especially in earlier times there were several variations in the way the family name was spelled. Although some of these variations persist to the present we have concluded that their use serves to cloud rather than clarify the overall picture and therefore have spelled the name as Wilson throughout. Possibly the final event leading to this conclusion was when, after carefully separating the residents of a town according to the number of L's in their name we found brothers with different spellings on their gravestones and a husband and wife with different spelling on the same stone.

Most people consulting this book will be searching for origins of either an individual named Wilson or of someone who married a Wilson. To facilitate such searches we have omitted from the index all individuals who did not have the Wilson surname. Those persons who are one generation removed from the Wilson name can be readily located by referencing their family name in the index to marriages.

The space thus saved has been used to expand the indexes both for individuals named Wilson and for those who married Wilsons. The Wilson index shows the year of birth, the principal place of residence and when known the year of death for each individual and includes all women who acquired the name by marriage. All individuals with the same given name are listed chronologically by year of birth without regard to possible middle names or initials which may or may not be known to the searcher. The index to marriages, in addition to names shows the date and place of the marriage whenever these are known.

A compilation of this type is never completed, there are always elusive lines of descent which have been overlooked. Correspondence regarding corrections or additions or with material on other Wilson families for inclusion in future volumes is always welcome.

Composition for this volume was done with an IBM PC computer using a Volkswriter VW3 word processing program and an Epson LQ800 printer.

JACOB WILSON OF BRAINTREE, MASSACHUSETTS

JACOB (V01-001) WILSON, was born before 1618, probably in England. He apparently died at Braintree, MA between 2 June 1641 when he took the freeman's oath and 18 May 1653 when the court found; "In the case between the Widdow Wilson of Brantry and Thomas Faxon about Joseph Wilson, son of ye sd widdow Wilson, apprentice with the sd Faxon, uppon a full hearinge of the case, the Court orders the sd Joseph be freed from his master, & be put apprentice to a new master by the select men of the towne & consent of two magistrates, & that ye sd Faxon have 20 sh. allowed him in reference to all damages & that thereuppon the cow formerly distrayned be released." (Nathaniel B. Shurtleff, Records of the Governor and Company of the Massachusetts Bay in New England [1853] 3:309)

We find no record of his wife's name. She was "the widdow Wilson, late of Brantrey" whose estate was inventoried by William Ellis of Braintree and Francis Elliot. The estate included money in the hands of David Walsbee, put out to John Ward for four years also four pounds in the hands of John Gurney. The court accepted this inventory on 30 Apr. 1663 and ordered that the estate in the hands of said Elliot be paid equally to the children of said widdow Wilson. (Suffolk County Probate Court Records, file 36)

One should not confuse the above cited court matters involving "widow Wilson of Braintree" with the concurrent court proceedings of "widow Wilson" relating to Priscilla, widow of William (F01-001) Wilson the jail keeper in Boston.

Jacob would have been of age when the Boston Town Records noted "on ye 16th day of second month, called April 1638 a great lot at Muddy River (now Brookline) is confirmed to Jacob Wilson." On 24 Dec. 1638 Jacob Wilson, sawyer, sold a house and lot while on 24 Feb. 1640, based upon a family of four he received sixteen acres, located in that part of Boston which later became Braintree. (Samuel G. Drake, History of City of Boston [1854] pp. 241, 245 and 250)

The name of Jacob Wilson appears on a list of the early proprietors of Taunton, Massachusetts, he appeared in Plymouth Court on 20 Aug. 1644. We have found nothing to indicate that he ever resided in Taunton, his name soon disappears from the records, there are no Wilsons on the Taunton tax list dated 28 Dec. 1659. On a list of purchasers or proprietors of the town of Taunton dated 14 May 1678 we find that Samuel Smith had the rights formerly belonging to Jacob Wilson. (Francis Baylies, Historical Memoir of New Plymouth [1866] pp. 265 and 278) Because of his given name, which was distinctive in those times, we are inclined to believe that Jacob Wilson of Taunton and Jacob Wilson of Brookline and Braintree were the same individual. There were other Wilsons, probably relatives of Jacob, listed in the early records of Taunton, see V-049 and V-050 in the appendix.

James Savage, in Volume IV of his Genealogical Dictionary [1860] page 583 notes the birth in Braintree of the first two children of Jacob Wilson. One must wonder at the occurrence of these births precisely one year apart, however we find no evidence to refute this listing.

Children of Jacob Wilson, all born at Braintree, there probably were others.

2-1 i. ISAAC, born 28 Jan. 1641.
2-2 ii. SARAH, born 28 Jan. 1642.
2-3+ iii. JOSEPH, born about 1647, died at Malden 14 Jan. 1705 ae. 58 yrs.

End of first generation.

SECOND GENERATION

V02-003 Capt. JOSEPH WILSON (Jacob) born about 1647 probably at Braintree, MA. He died at Malden, MA (VR) on 14 Jan. 1704/5 ae. 58 years. We have no proof that he was the son of the widow Wilson mentioned in the court proceedings however the adherence of his posterity to the name Jacob, which during colonial times was an uncommon name, is strongly suggestive of this relationship.

He married at Lynn, MA (VR) on 2 May 1670 DORCAS RANDALL. She survived her husband and was last noted 20 Mar. 1712/3 in the probate of her son Benjamin.

The first mention of him in Malden is on 2 May 1670 when Joseph Wilson, blacksmith of Malden, for 85 pounds purchased eight acres of land bounded in part by the highways to Reading and Lynn together with the dwelling house thereon standing. Joseph, with the consent of Dorcas his wife, gave the seller a mortgage in the amount of 75 pounds. He was an active dealer in Malden real estate, the last mention of him was on 29 Aug. 1703 when, in a conveyance witnessed by Samuel Wilson, Joseph and Dorcas sold four acres of land. (Middlesex Land Records, 7:214, 8:467 and 13:568)

On 4 June 1685 Cpl. Joseph Wilson was commissioned Ensign in the military foot company of Malden. He was made Lieutenant on 11 July 1689, on 20 June 1690 he was nominated to be a Captain. The name of Capt. Joseph Wilson of Middlesex County appears on a list titled "Majors and Captains agreed upon for the Canada Expedition, July 1690." (Massachusetts Archives, 36:134 and 169, 39:349a and 70:136) For reasons which are not apparent the name of Joseph, at the last moment was replaced on the list of captains and he thereby escaped the tragic fate of those who with such high hopes embarked upon that campaign.

Joseph Wilson died intestate, administration on his estate was granted on 12 Feb. 1706 to John Wilson who posted security by Jacob Wilson and Benjamin Wilson, all termed of Malden. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25159)

Children of Capt. Joseph and Dorcas (Randall) Wilson, first recorded at Lynn, all others probably born at Malden.

3-1+ i. JACOB, born 3 Sept. 1671, died at Malden (VR) 14 Dec. 1739 ae. 72 yrs.

3-2+ ii. JOSEPH, born at Malden (VR) 27 Sept. 1673, died at Ashford, CT on 24 Dec. 1720.

3-3+ iii. JOHN, born about 1676, died at Malden (VR) 21 July 1741 ae. 65 yrs.

3-4 iv. BENJAMIN, born about 1678, died at Malden (VR) 16 Feb. 1712, ae. 34 years. He died intestate, heirs-at-law named in his probate were Dorcas Wilson; mother, Dorcas Wilson, sister; and brothers Joseph, Jacob, John, Nathaniel and Samuel all of Malden. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25121)

3-5 v. DORCAS, born circa 1681, living 1712.

3-6+ vi. NATHANIEL, born circa 1684.

3-7+ vii. SAMUEL, born circa 1687, living 1712.

End of second generation.

THIRD GENERATION

V03-001 JACOB WILSON (Joseph, Jacob) born at Lynn, MA (VR) 3 Sept. 1671, eldest of the seven children of Capt. Joseph and Dorcas (Randall) Wilson. He died at Malden, MA (VR) 16 Apr. 1741 ae. 69 years, "husband of the late Susanna Wilson."

He married at Malden (VR) 20 May 1696 SUSANNA ROSS, born about 1667 (calculated) daughter of John and Mary (Osborn) Ross of Malden. (James Savage, A Genealogical Dictionary [1860] 3:577) Susanna died at Malden (VR) 15 Dec. 1739, "age 72 or 74 years." In 1727 Jacob Wilson, for 30 Pounds, agreed to keep the town from any further charge for his wife's sister, Hannah Ross. (Deloraine P. Corey, History of Malden, Massachusetts [1899] p. 401).

Jacob Wilson, termed "yeoman" in the many real estate transactions he had recorded in Middlesex County, was a leading man in Malden. He was appointed schoolmaster there on 29 Apr. 1709 "for ye yeer ensuing to larn children to Reed and to wright and Refmetick- and he js to have two shilings paid him by ye town: and he js to haue ye benefit of ye Scholars." It appears that the town clerk would have profited by a visit to Jacob Wilson's classroom. On 10 Feb. 1720/21 Jacob Wilson was appointed Town Treasurer. (ibid., pp. 395, 605)

4-1+ i. JOHN, born 25 Jan. 1696/7, died at Oxford, MA (VR) 13 Jan. 1778 ae. 81 years.

4-2+ ii. JACOB, born 7 Jan. 1699.

4-3+ iii. JOSEPH, born 19 Dec. 1701.

4-4 iv. SUSANNA, born 8 Sept. 1705. She married, intention filed at both Malden and Boston on 9 Jan. 1723 JACOB GRIGGS of Boston.

V03-002 JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) 27 Sept. 1673, second of the seven children of Capt. Joseph and Dorcas (Randall) Wilson. He died at Ashford, CT on 28 Dec. 1720.

He married at Woodstock, CT (VR) 5 Apr. 1716 MARY PARKER, born at Roxbury, MA (VR) 2 Mar. 1698/9, daughter of Jacob and Thankful (Hemingway) Parker. Mary married second, at Ashford (VR) 19 Aug. 1722 BENJAMIN READ who was born at Chelmsford, MA (VR) 23 Oct. 1698, son of Thomas and Hannah (-----) Read. (Clarence W. Bowen, History of Woodstock Connecticut [1943] 8:515)

The Proprietors Records of New Scituate, later Ashford, Connecticut show that at a town meeting held on 1 Jan. 1717/8 it was voted that the town grant to Joseph Wilson one hundred acres of land, he giving bond to pay five pounds in money. On 16 Dec. 1718 it was voted that the town do grant to Joseph Wilson that 200 acres of land that adjoins the land he lives on and a proprietorship throughout the town, he giving bond to pay ten pounds of money.

"John Alpen, a young man living with Joshua Kendall was passing the evening with his friend and neighbor, Joseph Wilson. Falling into a dispute over a game of pennies they went outdoors to 'try it out'. Grappling with each other as they passed through the door they scuffled a few moments and pitched together on the ground, Alpen uppermost. Wilson at once exclaimed 'I am a dead man' and so it proved. Some fatal inward injury had befallen him paralyzing the lower part of his body. He was unable to stand or move his limbs and died in a few days on December 28, 1720. He left a young wife and family." (Ellen D. Larned, History of Windham County, Connecitcut [1874] 1:231)

The fact that Joseph's estate went through the probate court is evidenced by the conveyance from his daughter which is cited below. Unfortunately, all records regarding this estate have been lost, the earliest probate record found in the Connecticut State Archives for a Joseph Wilson of Ashford is dated 1757.

Children of Joseph and Mary (Parker) Wilson.

4-5+ i. JOSEPH, born at Ashford (VR) on 25 June 1716, died there 4 Dec. 1756.

4-6+ ii. JACOB, born at Ashford (VR) 10 July 1718, died there 27 Dec. 1807.

4-7 iii. MARY, born about 1720. She married at Pomfret, CT (VR) 30 Sept. 1740 STEPHEN BURGE. Bowen, op. cit. gives this name as STEPHEN BURGESS. On 19 Mar. 1744 Mary Burge, daughter of Joseph Wilson, late of Ashford, deceased, and Stephen Burge her husband, conveyed fifty acres of land in Ashford

"being the southeast quarter part of 200 acres of land that our honored father, Joseph Wilson, late of Ashford, deceased, died possessed of, said land was settled to said Mary from the estate of her honored father by the judge of probate, and adjoins the quarter part settled by the judge of probate on my brother Jacob Wilson." (Ashford Land Records, Vol. D)

4-8+ iv. Probably SAMUEL, born 1721 (posthumous), died at Brooklyn, CT 12 Dec. 1788.

V03-003 JOHN WILSON (Joseph, Jacob) born about 1676, probably at Malden, MA, third of the seven children of Capt. Joseph and Dorcas (Randall) Wilson. "John Wilson, who had been husband to Elizabeth" died at Malden (VR) on 21 July 1741 ae. 65 years.

He married, probably at Malden about 1705 Mrs. ELIZABETH (LEE) HOWARD, born at Malden (VR) in 1670, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth (Rowland) Lee and widow of Jonathan Howard who died at Malden (VR) 6 Mar. 1702. Elizabeth "wife of John Wilson" died at Malden (VR) 15 Sept. 1726. (Benjamin Shurtleff, Descendants of William Shurtleff [1912] p. 673)(James Savage, A Genealogical Dictionary [1860] 3:72)

John Wilson died intestate. On 1 Aug. 1741 an agreement of his heirs was signed by his son John and his daughters Elizabeth and Tabitha. (Middlesesex Probate Court Records, File No. 25146)

4-10 ii. JOHN, born 1 May 1708, died at Malden (VR) 4 May 1760 ae. 51 years "son of John and Elizabeth". (Middlesex Probate Court Records, file 25148)

1793 ae 73 years (GS) son of John and Mary (Batchelder) Kettell. (Frederick C. Pierce, Batchelder Genealogy [1898] page 368) James Kettell had twelve children by his three wives. (Thomas B. Wyman, Charlestown Genealogies and Estates [1879] p. 583)

V03-006 NATHANIEL WILSON (Joseph, Jacob) born probably at Malden, MA circa 1684, sixth of the seven children of Capt. Joseph and Dorcas (Randall) Wilson.

He married at Malden (VR) 5 Jan. 1709 MARTHA NEWHALL, born at Malden, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Green) Newhall. (Charles L. 4-15+ iii. NATHANIEL, born 4 May 1718, died at Leicester in Sept. 1758.

4-16 iv. BENJAMIN, born 8 Jan. 1721.

Capt. Joseph and Eunice (Randall) Wilson. He died before 1749.

He married at Malden (VR) on 6 Mar. 1711/12 MARGARET (DOUGHTY) CHAMBERLAIN who was born at Saco Falls, ME, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Bully) Doughty and widow of Edmund Chamberlain. (Connecticut Nutmeger, Vol. 6 [March 1974] page 589) Mellen Chamberlain, in an earlier account found in History of Chelsea, Massachusetts [1908] 1:652, attributes this marriage to Margaret Chamberlain, daughter of John and Hannah (_____) Chamberlain, a sister of Edmund. Margaret, widow of Samuel Wilson died at Malden (VR) in October 1749.

At a town meeting held on 22 May 1710 by a vote Samuel Wilson "js chose Schoolmaster for This town jf ye town and he can agree upon terms." (Deloraine P. Corey, History of Malden, Massachusetts [1899] page 605)

Samuel Wilson of Malden, cordwainer, and Margaret his wife on 8 Apr. 1713 sold a parcel of eight acres of upland in Malden and on 30 Mar. 1716 they sold a dwelling house, barn and orchard with eight acres of land. (Middlesex Land Records, 17:207 and 18:201)

4-19 i. Child, died at Malden (VR) 29 Jan. 1715/16, ae. 2 months.

End of third generation.

FOURTH GENERATION

V04-001 Dea. JOHN WILSON (Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) 25 Jan. 1696/7 first of the four children of Jacob and Susanna (Ross) Wilson. He died at Oxford, MA (VR) 13 Jan. 1778 in his 81st year.

He married 15 Dec. 1719, probably at Malden, MARY GREEN, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Wheeler) Green. Mary survived her husband. In his will, dated 6 June 1753 Samuel Green of Malden mentioned his daughter Mary Wilson. (Middlesex Probate Court Records, 45:393)

The records of a descendant, published in Report to the Wilson Association, U. S. A. [1866] on page 27 show that Dea. John Wilson resided in Taunton, MA. Aside from the fact that his great-grandfather once owned land in Taunton we find nothing to verify this statement. "John and his wife came to Oxford, perhaps in the spring of 1732. In 1736 he purchased of his father a farm on Sutton Road and there spent a long useful life, being succeeded by his son, John, Jr. Dea. Wilson was one of the best of men, town clerk from 1747 to 1775, ten years selectman, most of the time chairman and from 1743 to the time of his death Deacon." (George F. Daniels, History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] p. 748)

In his will, dated at Oxford 3 Mar. 1776 John Wilson mentioned his wife Mary and their children John Wilson, Mary, wife of William Nichols and Lydia, wife of Joseph Phillips. John Wilson of Oxford, gentleman, was appointed executor on 5 May 1778, he posted bond by Jeremiah Amidon and Ebenezer Davis. The probate calls him Ensign John Wilson. (Worcester Probate Court Records, File 66412)

Children of Dea. John and Mary (Green) Wilson, first three recorded at Malden, the youngest at Oxford.

5-1+ i. JOHN, born 28 Oct. 1720.

5-2 ii. MARY, born 12 Feb. 1722/3, died at Oxford (VR) about 1810. She married at Oxford (VR) 3 Oct. 1745 WILLIAM NICHOLS who was born in 1722 and died 18 Aug. 1794. (D. A. R. Patriot Index) They had ten (Nichols) children recorded at Oxford; Mary 1746, William 1748, Phebe 1750, Rachel 1753, Daniel 1755, Samuel 1757, Sarah 1760, Lois 1764, Lucy 1767 and lastly Daniel born in 1770.

5-3 iii. PHEBE, born 5 Mar. 1730, died at Oxford (VR) 7 Dec. 1753 just eleven days after the birth of her son. She married at Oxford (VR) 12 July 1753 JOSEPH LAFLIN probably son of Charles and Agnes (-----) Laflin of Oxford and had James Laflin, born 1753. (Alfred L. Holman Laflin Genealogy [1930])

V04-002 JACOB WILSON (Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) on 7 Jan. 1699, second of the four children of Jacob and Susanna (Ross) Wilson.

He married on 15 Dec. 1720, probably at Malden, SARAH GREEN, born at Charlestown, MA (VR) 9 May 1698 daughter of Samuel and Mary (Wheeler) Green. (John A. Vinton, Vinton Memorial [1858] p. 405) Sarah died at Stafford, CT (VR) 3 Apr. 1753.

Jacob removed from Malden, originally to Pomfret, CT where in 1727 he bought land, however he soon came to Oxford having purchased land there in 1730. He was a tanner and shoemaker who sold his land in Oxford in 1743. (George T. Daniels, History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] p. 749) Jacob was termed "of Sutton, MA" on 25 Sept. 1748 when he purchased land in Stafford where he appears to have resided until 1753. (Stafford Land Records, 2:291, 315 and 349) Jacob's father-in-law, Samuel Green made his will at Malden on 6 June 1753 when he was ninety years of age, it was proven on 24 Apr. 1758. Among others he named therein his daughter Mary Wilson (who had married her uncle, John Wilson) and his grandchildren Jacob Wilson, Samuel Wilson, Joseph Wilson and Susanna Wilson. V04-003 JOSEPH WILSON (Jacob, Joseph) Jacob, born at Malden, MA (VR) on 19 Dec. 1701, third of the four children of Jacob and Susanna (Ross) Wilson. He died at Boston, probably late in 1755.

He married RACHEL -----.

Mary Fisher, widow of Benjamin Fisher, late of Malden, miller, deceased, is admitted as an inhabitant with six children, namely Sarah, Hannah, Elizabeth, Mary, John and Mercy. Joseph Wilson of Malden and Jonathan Chandler of Boston have given bond to the town treasurer in the sum of three hundred pounds to identify (sic!) the town as the law directs. (Boston Selectmen's Records, 2 July 1739) We have not found any relationship between Joseph Wilson and the widow Mary Fisher.

Joseph Wilson and Rachel his wife in 1747 sold a wood lot in Charlestown, mortgaged another lot to James Smith of Malden and sold ten acres of land formerly belonging to Michael Smith. (Thomas Wyman, Charlestown Genealogies and Estates [1879] p. 1039) Could Rachel be a daughter of John and Rachel (Blanchard) Smith of Charlestown?

Whether from speculation in real estate or from fortunate commercial investments we do not know but Joseph Wilson became quite affluent. He is termed "gentleman, of Boston" in his probate which gave administration on 9 Jan. 1756 to his brother-in-law, Jacob Griggs of Boston, merchant. (Suffolk Probate Court Records, file 11194.)

Children of Joseph and Rachel (-----) Wilson as recorded at Malden.

V04-005 JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Joseph, Jacob) born at Ashford, CT (VR) on 25 June 1716, eldest of the four children of Joseph and Mary (Parker) Wilson. He died at Ashford (VR) 4 Dec. 1756.

He married at Ashford 28 Feb. 1735 ABIGAIL BUGBEE, born there, daughter of Dea. Josiah and Sarah (Hubbard) Bugbee. (Clarence W. Bowen, History of Woodstock, Connecticut [1943] 8:515) The date for this marriage is incorrectly given as 28 Feb. 1714/15 in the Barbour Collection at Connecticut State Library.

Joseph was only four years of age when his father was killed. We find no will, probate, guardianship or other legal transfer of property but when he came of age Joseph sold a portion of his father's estate as evidenced by a deed dated 8 Mar. 1737/8 whereby Joseph Wilson of Ashford, husbandman, conveyed one hundred acres of land in Ashford, being the south half of two hundred acres which his father had purchased of Col. John Chandler of Woodstock He sold the other half on 12 July 1741. (Ashford Land Records, Vol. G) It is not clear whether Joseph had inherited this entire one hundred acres or whether he had purchased the share of his brother Samuel and never recorded the deed, possibly Samuel was not related and Joseph, as the oldest son, had received a double portion of his father's estate.

On 21 Apr. 1752 Richard Leach and Amity, his wife, both of Litchfield, Hartford Co., quitclaimed to Joseph Wilson all their right, title and interest in the estate of their honored father, Josiah Bugbee, late of Ashford, deceased. On 8 Feb. 1755 John Chapman of Ashford and Penelope his wife quitclaimed to Joseph Wilson their interest in the estate of Dr. Josiah Bugbee, deceased. (Ashford Land Records, Vol. J)

Joseph Wilson died intestate leaving a widow Abigail. Administration on his estate was granted on 5 Apr. 1757 to Moses Holmes of Ashford. On 3 May 1757 Jedediah Fay of Ashford was appointed guardian for Elizabeth Wilson, Sarah Wilson, Frances Wilson, Mary Wilson and John Wilson, all minor children of Joseph Wilson, late of Ashford, deceased. (Pomfret District Probate Court Records, File Nos. 4518, 4519, 4523 and 4527)

Mrs. Ruth Wilson, formerly of Ashford died at Willington, aged 89 years, her obit was published in the newspapers dated 1 Sept. 1813. (Obits from Connecticut Newspapers at State Library, Hartford)

The only mention of Jacob Wilson in the land records of Ashford is dated 27 Mar. 1744 when he sold to Samuel Eastman of Ashford fifty acres of land. This was his portion of his father's estate as shown by the conveyance of his sister which was dated just eight days earlier. (Ashford Land Records, Vol. D)

The 1790 census of Ashford lists Jacob Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years and two females. By 1800 he was apparently living with his son Jacob, Jr. as we find no individual listing for him.

5-32+ x. JOSEPH, born 11 Sept. 1764, baptized 27 Aug. 1769, died at Ashford about 1845.

V04-008 SAMUEL WILSON (Joseph, Joseph, Jacob) born probably at Ashford, CT about 1719, believed to be a posthumous son of Joseph and Mary (Parker) Wilson. He died at Brooklyn, CT (VR) 12 Dec. 1788 ae. 68 years.

He married at Pomfret, CT (VR) 24 Mar. 1742 BETSEE ADAMS born there (VR) 11 Nov. 1725, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Davenport) Adams. Betsee died (GR) 4 Apr. 1803, ae. 77 years, buried with her husband in Brooklyn.

Samuel takes his place in this family with weak credentials. George F. Daniels, on page 749 of his History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] suggests that Samuel was a son of Jacob (V04-002) and Sarah (Green) Wilson but their Samuel is fully documented. This Samuel's presumed sister Mary received fifty acres of the two hundred acres of land her father had at the time of his death. Her brother Jacob also received an allotment of fifty acres but their brother Joseph sold one hundred acres of this land. We are unable to determine whether Joseph, as the eldest son, received a double share or whether Samuel sold his portion to his brother and the conveyance was not recorded. It is noteworthy that both Samuel and Mary were married at Pomfret.

Samuel had strong religious beliefs. Ellen D. Larned in her History of Windham County, Connecticut notes on page 445 that Samuel Wilson of Mortlake Parish, Pomfret exhorted the people to revolt against the established church and on page 447 she adds that Samuel and Betsee were among the dissenters who withdrew from the established church. In May of 1786 Mortlake Parish was set-off as the new town of Brooklyn.

Samuel Wilson of Brooklyn died intestate, administration on his estate was given, at the request of the widow Betsey and a son Ignatius, to John Ashcroft on 6 Jan. 1789. A distribution was made on 17 Feb. 1790 to the heirs, listed as Ignatius Wilson, son; Mary Day, eldest daughter; Betsey Kendall, second daughter; Sally Day, third daughter and Mabel Wilson, fourth daughter. (Pomfret District Probate Court Records, file 4529)

Mrs. Betsey Wilson of Canterbury, CT made her will on 11 Nov. 1795, it was proven at Brooklyn on 20 May 1803. Capt. Joel Day of Killingly, CT was appointed executor with surety posted by John Ashcroft of Brooklyn. Heirs-at-law were Betsey Kendall, daughter, deceased, Mary Day, daughter, Sarah Day, daughter, Mabel Davenport, daughter and Ignatius Wilson, son. Simeon Wilson purchased in 1748 land in Spencer on what was then called Orchard Hill. He appears to have been quite affluent, in 1771 pews in the new meeting house were allocated with priority based upon the valuation of the real estate the individual owned in town, Simeon was number twenty-eight on a list of sixty-three names. (James Draper, History of Spencer, Massachusetts [1860] pp. 138 and 269)

FIFTH GENERATION

V05-001 Ens. JOHN WILSON (John, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) on 28 Oct. 1720, oldest of the seven children of Dea. John and Mary (Green) Wilson. He is reported to have died at Shoreham, VT in 1817 ae. 83 years. (Francis F. Spies, Addison County Gravestone Inscriptions [1913] Mss. at New England Historic Genealogical Society)

He married at Oxford, MA (VR) 7 Sept. 1749 LOIS TOWN, born there (VR) 18 May 1729, daughter of Israel and Susannah (Haven) Town and sister of Esther Town who married John's cousin, Jacob (V05-005) Wilson. (George F. Daniels, History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] p. 721) Lois is said to have died at Shoreham in Sept. 1822 ae. 81 years. (Spies, op. cit.) The data given by Spies is obviously incorrect, it is doubtful that either John or Lois ever resided in Shoreham.

John settled on the homestead, was in Oxford 1778 when he was termed "gentleman, of Oxford" in the administration of his father's estate. He sold the homestead in 1780 and probably left town. (Daniels, op. cit. p. 748) Daniels goes on to say that he married second, on 17 Aug. 1758 Martha Shumway, born 23 Nov. 1738, daughter of Jeremiah and Experience (Leonard) Shumway. This is another obvious error, the printed town records and Daniels himself, on page 683 properly attribute this marriage to Joseph (V05-010) Wilson.

The death record of Dorcas Wilson states she was the daughter of Ensign John Wilson. It is not clear whether he earned this title for service during the French and Indian War or for service during the Revolution.

On 18 Aug. 1780 John Wilson of Oxford, gentleman, purchased of Ezra Conant, Jr., physician, fifty acres of land in Warwick, MA. John was residing in Warwick on 25 Jan. 1786 when he sold this fifty acres, his wife Lois was mentioned in the deed but she did not sign. (Hamden County Land Records, 23:3 and 26:603) John Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Warwick heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years and two females.

Children of Ens. John and Lois (Town) Wilson, both births recorded at Oxford.

6-1 i. DORCAS, born 22 June 1750, died unmarried at Oxford (VR) on 26 Apr. 1779 in her 29th year. The Oxford records show she had a daughter Ruth, born of Robert Wilcox in April 1776 who died 9 Jan. 1778.

6-2+ ii. JOHN, born 10 Aug. 1754, died at Shoreham, VT 6 Feb. 1829.

V05-005 JACOB WILSON (Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) on 8 Feb. 1721/2, oldest of the eight children of Jacob and Sarah (Green) Wilson. He died at Belchertown, MA (VR) on 5 May 1789 ae. 68 years.

He married first, at Oxford, MA (VR) 17 Dec. 1742 ESTHER TOWN, who was born there (VR) 14 Mar. 1724, daughter of Israel and Susanna (Haven) Town and sister of Lois Town who married Jacob's cousin, John (V05-001) Wilson. (George F. Daniels, History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] p. 749) Esther died at Oxford (VR) 17 Jan. 1745, there is no record of children from this brief marriage.

Jacob married second, at Pomfret, CT (VR) on 12 Nov. 1748 AMY SKELTON who died at Belchertown in 1807, ae. 80 years.

Records show that in 1748 Jacob Wilson, Jr. of Oxford purchased land in Stafford, CT which he sold in 1749. By 1750 when he again purchased land there he was termed "of Stafford". Subsequently he had many realty transactions, one in May 1758 covered the sale of thirty acres of land to his brother Samuel Wilson. Finally, on 22 Oct. 1774 he sold "the farm on which I now live together with all buildings thereon" presumably in preparation for his move to Belchertown. (Stafford, Connecticut Land Records, 2:226, 280, 286; 3:355 and 5:172). By 1778 Jacob Wilson and his wife Amy were listed as members of the Congregational Church in Belchertown.

On 20 Nov. 1789 Thomas Wilson and Elizabeth his wife, Asa Wilson and Aseneath his wife, Reuben Wilson and Anna his wife, all of Belchertown, children and heirs of Jacob Wilson, late of Belchertown, yeoman, deceased, intestate quitclaimed to their brother Jacob Wilson all right, title and interest in the farm of 116 acres on which Jacob Wilson, deceased, lately lived. (Hampshire County Land Records 5:291)

They had five (Chapman) children born at Belchertown; Daniel 1782, James 1784, Jeremiah 1787, Elihu 1789 and William born 1794. (Emily S. Chism, Early Ashford Families, mss. at Connecticut State Library)

6-7+ v. REUBEN, born 5 Jan. 1763.

6-8 vi. SETH, born 24 May 1767, probably did not survive his father.

6-9+ vii. NATHAN, born 24 Jan. 1770, died at Belchertown 25 Aug. 1818.

V05-006 SAMUEL WILSON (Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob), born at Malden, MA (VR) on 15 May 1724, second of the eleven children of Jacob and Sarah (Green) Wilson.

He married at Stafford, CT (VR) 8 Oct. 1749 LYDIA JOHNSON, daughter of Nathaniel and Mehitable (Guile) Johnson. This relationship is proven by the will of Nathaniel Johnson which mentions his daughter, Lydia Wilson. (Descendants of John Clough of Salisbury, Massachusetts [1952] p. 100)

This man is easily confused with Samuel (V04-008) Wilson, in fact George T. Daniels, on page 749 of his History of Oxford, Massachusetts [1892] makes just this error saying somewhat tentatively that it was this Samuel who married Betsee Adams. The truth is suggested by geographical association, both this Samuel and his brother, Jacob Wilson, Jr. removed from Stafford to Belchertown. The proof is found in the land records which show first that on 28 May 1758 Jacob Wilson, Jr. of Stafford conveyed to his brother Samuel Wilson of Stafford a certain thirty acre parcel of land in Stafford and second that on 28 Mar. 1777 Samuel Wilson of Belcher, Hampshire Co., MA, in a deed witnessed by his son Calvin, conveyed this thirty acre parcel of land to John Chapman of Willington, CT. (Stafford Land Records, 3:355 and 5:383)

On 27 Mar. 1774 Samuel Wilson of Stafford purchased of his brother-in-law, Ephraim Clough of Belchertown (they both had married daughters of Nathaniel Johnson) one hundred acres of land situated in the northwesterly part of Belchertown near the point where the towns of Belchertown, Amherst and Pelham meet. He purchased an adjoining one hundred acres in 1780. (Hampshire County Land Records, 25:660 and 26:492)

Samuel had Revolutionary War service from Belchertown being mustered in 1780 for three months service in the Continental Army. He was described as age; 56 years, stature; 5 feet 10 inches, complexion; dark. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution 17:577)

After the Revolution Samuel accepted the position of tax collector for the Town of Belchertown. Unfortunately this was at the height of the widespread tax revolt known as Shay's Rebellion and Belchertown was close to the center of the action. The jails were filled with farmers who were unable to pay the taxes imposed by the state to pay the costs of the war and to meet the assessments levied by the Continental Congress. Being either unable or unwilling to send his neighbors to jail for failure to pay their taxes Samuel himself was thrown into the Northampton jail for failure to collect the taxes committed to him thereby becoming the second of four successive Belchertown tax collectors to meet this fate. He spent over eleven months during 1786 and 1787 in jail and was released only after 2 Apr. 1787 when at the town meeting it was "voted that the town direct the committee to sell one hundred acres of Wilson's land, including the house, barn and all other appurtenances that were Samuel Wilson's, also a mare that was the property of said Wilson." On 27 May 1787 Samuel Wilson conveyed to the selectmen one hundred acres of land "for the use and benefit of the town of Belchertown. (Hampshire County Land Records, 27:277)

After his release Samuel sued the town alleging that his property had been illegally confiscated in that it had not been sold at auction to the highest bidder as required by law but rather it had sold to one of its members at a price arbitrarily set by the committee. There is nothing in the records to show the outcome of this litigation which persisted for several years. (William E. Shaw, Belchertown in the Eighteenth Century [1968] p. 56)

Samuel Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Belchertown heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and two females. This is the last record we have found of him, he was 66 years of age at that time, with no gravestones for he and his wife in Belchertown it appears that he probably joined his children in Hebron, Washington Co., NY.

Children of Samuel and Lydia (Johnson) Wilson, probably all born at Stafford.

6-10 i. SARAH, born (VR) 1 Oct. 1751, died at Stafford (VR) 4 Apr. 1753.

She married at Belchertown (VR) 23 Nov. 1785 her first cousin, LUTHER CLOUGH who was born at Stafford 14 Dec. 1760 son of Ephraim and Mary (Johnson) Clough. They had five (Clough) children; Nathaniel 1787, Levi 1789, Horace 1791, Orvis 1792 and Sally born 1793. (Eva A. Speare, Descendants of John Clough of Salisbury, Massachusetts [1952] page 165)

She married at Belchertown in 1784 EBENEZER CHAPMAN who was born at Ashford, CT in 1763, died at Hebron 1850 son of Throop Chapman by his first wife, Susannah (Barney). Ebenezer, who served at Valley Forge with Gen. Washington, with his brother William wo married Amy (V06-006) Wilson, became the first settlers in Hebron and named the hamlet of Belcher after Belchertown, MA. Ebenezer and Lydia had seven (Chapman) children born at Hebron; George, Albert, John, Phebe, Betsey, Lydia and Spencer. (Hebron, A Century in Review [1987] p. 226)

Joseph graduated from Harvard College with the Class of 1749. His biography in Sibley's Harvard Graduates is not flattering, Joseph comported himself as the proverbial rich man's son devoting more of his time to drinking and partying than to his studies. After his graduation his parents purchased for ninety pounds a commission for him as Lieutenant in Shirley's regiment which was raised for the Nova Scotia campaign. Although his service does not appear to have been distinguished the record shows his promotion to Captain.

"Joseph and Huldah Paine, who came from Charlestown in March with Joseph and Susanna Wilson were warned out of Malden on 21 June 1766." (NEH&G Register, Vol. 92 [Jan. 1938] p. 54)

Curiously William's first wife was also Susanna Wilson, born at Billerica 19 Nov. 1752, daughter of Jacob (J04-006) Wilson and his wife Hannah (Bowers). By his second wife William had nine (Baldwin) children born at Billerica; William 1778, Thomas 1780, Francis 1782, Susannah 1784, John 1786, Sarah 1788, Oliver 1790, Henry 1792 and Joshua born in 1795. He married at Kent, CT (VR) 1 Jan. 1772 ELIZABETH EATON.

Parker Wilson died intestate. Administration on his estate was not undertaken until 23 Sept. 1793 when Job Terrill, Jr. was appointed administrator with surety posted by Adolphus Bostwick, both of New Milford. The administrator's expenses included a detail report of his "journey to Susquehannah to procure a certificate from Col. Butler of the service of Parker Wilson in the Continental Army." Distribution of the assets was made to the heirs on 15 Feb. 1794 with payment to Samuel Wilson of 14 Pounds, 17 Shillings and 10 Pence; to Jacob Wilson of 7 Pounds, 8 Shillings and 9 Pence and to Parker Wilson of 7 Pounds, 8 Shillings and 9 Pence. He is probably the Samuel Wilson of Killingly who had eighteen days service in 1775 on the Lexington Alarm. From 9 May to 14 Dec. 1775 he was Corporal in Capt. Joseph Elliott's company of Col. Israel Putnam's regiment of Continental troops and from June to 25 Dec. 1776 he was Sergeant in Capt. Stephen Crosby's company of Col. Joseph, possibly because of physical problems, was unsuccessful in his endeavors. The land records of Ashford list a succession of mortgages, judgements, executions, etc. by which his creditors attempted to obtain satisfaction of their claims. His father-in-law, Stephen Utley was concerned over the ability of Zelinda's husband and for this reason he bequeathed his farm of one hundred acres, located in the easterly part of Ashford, to the children of his daughter Zelinda with the provision that she and her husband would have lifetime use of the property. V05-046 NATHANIEL WILSON (Nathaniel, Nathaniel, Joseph, Jacob) born at Leicester, MA (VR) 9 Nov. 1746, third of the seven children of Nathaniel and Sarah (Parrish) Wilson. He died at Spencer, MA (VR)(GS) 14 Aug. 1825, ae. 78 years.

He married at Hudson, Columbia Co., NY in May 1788 ABIGAIL EARLE, born at Leicester (VR) in 1766, daughter of John and Sarah (Wheaton) Earle. (Pliney Earle, The Earle Family [1888] page 158) Abigail survived her husband by many years and died at Spencer (GS) 16 Mar. 1858. She is listed there in the 1850 census living with her son John.

Nathaniel Wilson, with his wife Abigail came from Leicester and purchased a part of lot No. 51 located in the southern part of Spencer. In 1758 the town meeting in Spencer elected him to the office of Surveyor of Highways. (James Draper, History of Spencer, Massachusetts [1866] p. 269) He had Revolutionary war service being among the minute-men of Capt. Ebenezer Mason's company which marched from Spencer on the alarm of 19 Apr. 1775. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:546) The 1790 census of Spencer lists Nathaniel Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 26 years of age and two females.

His will was made at Spencer on 2 July 1825 and was proven on 1 Nov. 1825. He mentioned therein his wife Abigail, his daughters Sally Whittemore, Elizabeth Wilson, Roxy Rice, Martha Wilson and Paulina Wilson, also his sons Nathaniel, Jr., Dexter and Joel Davis Wilson, the last two being minors. His sons Nathaniel and John were named to be executors and surety was posted by Reuben Whittemore and Jeremiah Grout. (Worcester Probate Court Records file 66411)

On 1 Feb. 1856 Abigail Wilson of Spencer, age 88 years, applied for a pension based upon the Revolutionary war service of her husband, Nathaniel Wilson, late of Spencer, deceased. In her deposition she stated that he had served in the company of Capt. Ebenezer Mason in Col. Jonathan Warner's regiment; that her husband had applied for and received a certificate for bounty land; her husband, died at Spencer on 14 Aug. 1825; that we were married in the town of Hudson, state of New York; that there being no minister in the vicinity we had to go six miles to find a Justice of the Peace, the place that we then lived being nine miles from the river Hudson; that after we were married my husband sold his land and we returned to Spencer; that my name before marriage was Abigail Earle; that my husband and I have brought up twelve children, eight of them still living; that I never knew or heard of any other man by the name of Nathaniel Wilson except for his father who died in the old French war, so called. (Revolutionary War Pension Application No. BLWt 18396-160-55)

Although Abigail stated that they had raised twelve children we find only eleven children listed in the family record included with her pension application and also there are only eleven children listed in the Spencer records. It is possible that she included a child which was not her offspring.

Children of Nathaniel and Abigail (Earl) Wilson, births as recorded at Spencer and as listed in the widow's pension application.

He married at Sturbridge, MA (VR) 21 Feb. 1781 CYNTHIA GOULD, who was born in 1752, died at Shoreham (VR) 5 Mar. 1824 ae. 72 years.

He is listed in the 1790 census of Warwick, MA heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, two males under 16 years and three females. He was on the 1798 tax list in Warwick, it is probable that he removed to Shoreham sometime after 1800 having served three terms as selectman in Warwick. (Jonathan Blake, History of Warwick, Massachusetts [1873] pp. 193 and 229)

He married first, at Pomfret, CT (VR) 23 Feb. 1775 ELIZABETH WILLIAMS, who was born at Pomfret, CT (VR) 4 Oct. 1756, daughter of David and Elizabeth (Dana) Williams. Elizabeth died at Belchertown about 1777.

Thomas married second, about 1778, at Belchertown ELIZABETH SUMNER. William Sumner Appleton, on page 179 of Descendants of William Sumner [1879] does not give the ancestry of Elizabeth but says she married Thomas about 1774. It might appear there was only one Elizabeth and the marriage recorded at Pomfret was the second for Elizabeth (Williams) Sumner but this concept is voided by the records at Belchertown for the births of Sumner and Daniel which term them respectively "first son" and "second son", i. e. of the second marriage. Elizabeth (Sumner) Wilson died at Belchertown (GS) 15 Nov. 1834 ae. 81 years. Her obit appeared in the Springfield Republican on 6 Dec. 1834.

Thomas and Elizabeth, with their eldest son removed from Pomfret to Belchertown about 1776. The 1790 census shows him there heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, four males under 16 and five females.

Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution 17:581, lists the service of Thomas Wilson as private in Capt. Benjamin Phillip's company of Col. Elisha Porter's regiment from 10 July to 12 Aug. 1777 and in Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's company of the same regiment from 22 Sept. to 28 Sept. 1777. His commission as ensign, which is included on his gravestone, apparently came for service in the militia after the close of the war.

Thomas and his brother Jacob were among the sixty-four men from Belchertown who admitted to participation in Shay's Rebellion. (History of the Connecticut Valley in Massachusetts [1879] published by Louis H. Evarts, page 533) There was no stigma associated with this action, Thomas was elected selectman in Belchertown six times between 1789 and 1799. In addition he served the town on a committee for the construction of a new meetinghouse and, when that project was completed he served on the committee appointed to dispose of the old meetinghouse. (William E. Shaw, Belchertown in the Eighteenth Century [1968] pp. 39, 40, 50 and 93)

Thomas Wilson signed his will at Belchertown on 1 May 1807, it was proven 27 June 1807. He mentioned therein his widow Elizabeth, his first son Chester, second son Walter, third son Sumner, fourth son Daniel, his first daughter Elizabeth, second daughter Anna, third daughter Esther, fourth daughter Susanna and his fifth daughter Olive. Esther and Susanna were minors over the age of fourteen years, Olive was under fourteen years of age. (Hampshire Probate Court Records file 162:40)

V06-004 JACOB WILSON (Jacob, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Stafford, CT (VR) 8 May 1751, second of the eight children of Jacob and Amy (Skelton) Wilson.

Jacob is said to have had a first wife of whom we find no record.

Jacob Wilson of Pomfret married at Dudley, MA (VR) 22 Apr. 1777 MOLLY DODGE who was born there (VR) 15 June 1754 daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Brown) Dodge. (Joseph T. Dodge, Genealogy of the Dodge Family of Essex County, Massachusetts [1894] p. 85)

Jacob had Revolutionary War service from Belchertown as private in Capt. Jonathan Bardwell's company of Col. Elisha Porter's regiment from 22 Sept. 1777 to 17 Oct. 1777 and again in June 1782 as private in Capt. Gideon Stebbin's company of Hampshire County militia. (Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution, 17:565)

In 1778 Jacob was elected selectman in Belchertown. Like his brother Thomas Jacob Wilson was among the sixty-four men from Belchertown who participated in Shay's Rebellion. (History of the Connecticut Valley in Massachusetts [1879] published by Louis H. Everts, page 533) In 1785 he was on a committee to propose a method to divide the town into two parts. (William C. Shaw, Belchertown in the Eighteenth Century [1968] pp. 37, 50 and 93) The 1790 census of Belchertown lists Jacob Wilson heading a household comprised of three males under 16 years of age, two males over 16 years and five females.

He removed to Madison County, NY about 1793 and then in 1817 to Arkwright, Chautauqua County, NY where the 1850 census lists R. Wilson, age 87 years, residing with C. and Lovissa (age 57 years, born in MA) Andrus.

Andrew W. Young, on page 222 of his History of Chautauqua County, New York [1875] in the section covering the town of Arkwright says; "Alla and Zebina Wilson, and Robert Cowden who married their sister, came from Madison County in 1811. V06-012 CALVIN WILSON (Samuel, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Stafford, CT in 1755 (calculated), believed to be a son of Samuel and Lydia (Johnson) Wilson. His gravestone in Elm Grove Cemetery, located in the Poquonock district of Windsor, CT is inscribed "In Memory of Calvin Wilson who Died May 20, 1809 AE 54, He was Born in Stafford, Conn. and Served as a Soldier During the Revolutionary War. Submit, Relict of Calvin Wilson Died Dec. 10, 1840".

He married at Windsor on 14 Sept. 1785 SUBMIT DENSLOW who was born there 15 May 1765, daughter of Benoni and Sarah (Griswold) Denslow. On 6 Mar. 1841 Horace Thrall of Windsor was named administrator on the estate of Submit Wilson, widow, late of Windsor, deceased, intestate. Surety was posted by Walter Pease, Jr. of Hartford. (Hartford District Probate Court Records)

The ancestry of Calvin Wilson is obscure, we find no record in Stafford of his birth. Examination of the records show that there were two brothers residing there, Jacob and Samuel, sons of Jacob and Sarah (Green) Wilson, both men had large families and the spacing of the births of their many children are such that either could have had a son born in 1755.

There are three reasons why we have concluded that Calvin was a son of Samuel Wilson. First, the births of all of the known children of Jacob are duly recorded at Stafford whereas Samuel had at least two other children whose births do not appear on the town records. Second, after the family had removed to Belchertown, MA Calvin on 28 Mar. 1777 witnessed at deed at Stafford whereby Samuel Wilson of Belcher, MA conveyed to John Chapman of Stafford thirty acres of land situated in the easterly part of that town. (Stafford, Connecticut Land Records, Vol. V, page 393) Third, for many years Calvin was closely associated with Samuel's son James Wilson, they served in the same military company during the Revolution and they both resided in the Poquonock Parish of Windsor. None of these facts by itself is conclusive but the combination provides a reasonable indication of Calvin's parentage.

Calvin had extensive military service during the Revolutionary war. His enlistments from the middle of 1775 through November 1777 are credited to Belchertown and are documented in Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution 17:533. His enlistments during the latter part of the war are indexed in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 [1889]. Based upon these records it appears that Calvin and his brother James settled in Windsor sometime between 1778 and 1780.

The 1790 census of Windsor lists Calvin Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 and four females. His name first appears in the Windsor land records on 14 Apr. 1789 when he and his wife Submit received title to her portion of the lands of Benoni Denslow, deceased. On 5 Mar. 1792 Calvin leased land on which to erect a tanning works and on 25 Mar. 1796 he purchased a small parcel of land with the dwelling house thereon standing. (Windsor Land Records, 17:361, 20:71 and 30:36)

The widow Sarah applied for a pension on 15 Dec. 1838. Her deposition stated that Calvin entered service in 1781 for a period of three years and served until the end of the war in the Fourth Regiment, Connecticut Line under Col. Ralph Butler; that he was honorably discharged; that she married Calvin on 14 Sept. 1785; that her husband Calvin died on 20 May 1808 (sic!) and that she has since remained his widow. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications W18424)

(The information which follows regarding the descendants of Calvin Wilson, unless otherwise attributed, is taken from George McKenzie Roberts, The Denslow Family in America, New York Genealogical and Biographical Record, Vol. 79 [April 1948]) p. 84.)

V06-014 JAMES WILSON (Samuel, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Stafford, CT circa 1757, son of Samuel and Lydia (Johnson) Wilson. His parentage is listed in the vital records of Stafford but the date for his birth is lacking.

He appears to have had a first wife, SUSANNA -----.

James married second, at Windsor, CT about 1778 MARGARET GILES who was born there about 1763, daughter of Edward and Hannah (Skinner) Giles. (John A. Vinton, Giles Memorial [1864] p. 166)

On 1 Mar. 1778 James Wilson and his wife Susanna were admitted to communion in the church located in the Poquonock section of Windsor, the part Windsor where his brother Calvin had his tannery. He had Revolutionary War service with his brother Calvin in the Eighth company of the First Regiment of militia in Windsor. It is related that this regiment was ordered to go to Peekskill in October of 1777. On reaching Waterbury James Wilson fell from his horse and was incapacitated for a period of six weeks by the "misplaced bones in his foot" for which he had to pay the surgeon six shillings. (Henry R. Stiles, History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut [1891] 1:287)

On 14 Aug. 1786 we find James in Hebron, Washington Co., NY where he purchased from his brother Gile fifty acres of land located in the southeast corner of lot No. 25 in the Scott and Kemper patent. The 1790 census of Hebron lists James Wilson, 2nd heading a household comprised of himself and eight females. On 14 Jan. 1807 James Wilson, 2nd sold a portion of the land he had earlier purchased. (Washington County Land Records C:18 and H:379) This is the last record we have found of him, he is not listed in the 1825 census of Hebron.

There were five large, unrelated families with the surname Wilson residing in the Hebron area at this time. With only fragmentary records available we have been unable to identify all of the descendants of James Wilson. (NEH&G Register, Vol. 130 [October 1976] p. 304)

V06-015 Maj. GILE WILSON (Samuel, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Stafford, CT (VR) 20 Dec. 1758, fourth of the eight children of Samuel and Lydia (Johnson) Wilson. He was baptized at Stafford 29 Jan. 1759 and died in the village of Belcher, town of Hebron, Washington Co., NY (GS) on 1 May 1829 in his 71st year.

Charles Martyn, in The William Ward Genealogy [1925] on page 187 spells his name Guild in the mistaken belief that he was a son of Uriah and Mary (Guild) Wilson. Actually his distinctive name derives from his maternal grandmother, Mehitable Guile.

He married at Belchertown, MA in June 1780 RUTH WARD who was born there 21 Apr. 1761, daughter of John and Abigail (Heath) Ward. She died at Hebron (GS) 15 Jan. 1826, buried there with her husband.

His service in Capt. Joseph Hooker's company of Col. Ruggles Woodbridge's regiment during the Stillwater campaign of Maj. General Gates is recorded on page 536 of Vol. XVII of Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution. His commission as major apparently came after the war, he is referred to as Major Wilson in several land transactions.

Like many of his fellow soldiers Gile was apparently favorably impressed by the rich and fertile lands he saw while campaigning in upstate New York. Soon after the birth of his first child Gile took his young family from Belchertown to Hebron, reportedly walking the entire distance while his wife and infant child accompanied him on horseback.

The earliest notice found of him in Hebron is in Book A, page 163 of Washington County Land Records where a conveyance dated 31 Jan. 1786 notes that Gile Wilson of Black Creek (now Hebron) for 71 pounds and 8 shillings purchased from Jonathan Clough a parcel of land known as lot No. 35 in the patent granted to John Tabor Kemp and John Morin Scott, Esq. The 1790 census of Hebron lists Gile Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, two males under 16 and four females.

Gile Wilson died intestate, administration on his estate was granted on 11 May 1829 to John W. Wilson of Kingsbury, NY with surety posted by Abel Woods of Hebron. (Salem District, Washington County Probate Court Records, A:116)

V06-017 SAMUEL WILSON (Samuel, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Stafford, CT (VR) 29 Jan. 1761, baptized 1 Feb. 1761, eighth of the ten children of Samuel and Lydia (Johnson) Wilson. He died at Waterford, Saratoga Co., NY on 7 Jan. 1834.

He married at Cambridge, Washington Co., NY in June of 1784 ANN WARD who was born at Stafford 16 Mar. 1764, daughter of Obadiah and Esther (Reynolds) Ward. (Charles Martyn, The William Ward Genealogy [1925] p. 127). Ann survived her husband.

"Eunice Clough, born at Stafford, CT on 29 Aug. 1751, daughter of Ephraim and Mary (Johnson) Clough married Samuel Wilson and removed to Belcher, NY and were among the first lot of emigrants from Belchertown, MA to Washington County, NY." This statement, which has been repeatedly published is incorrect, Eunice Clough married Adam Clark Gray and died as Eunice Gray in 1829.

Samuel, like his father, served from Belchertown in the Revolutionary War. His service, in Capt. Bardwell's company of Col. Porter's regiment is listed on pages 548 and 579 of Vol. 17, Massachusetts Soldiers and Sailors in the War of the Revolution. His description at the time of his enlistment on 19 July 1779 was; age, 18 years; stature, 5 foot, 7 inches; complexion, light and hair, light.

Samuel was residing in Washington County, NY by 1 May 1788 when his brother Gile conveyed to him fifty acres of land in Hebron. (Washington County Land Records Book A, p. 396) The 1790 census of Hebron lists him there heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, one male under 16 years and three females.

In 1818 Samuel Wilson of Waterford, Saratoga Co., NY applied for a veteran's pension deposing that he had enlisted 13 July 1779 for service in Col. Thomas Marshall's regiment of the Massachusetts line (sic!). On 23 May 1834 Joseph Wilson, a son of Samuel Wilson, late of Waterford, deceased, and Ann Wilson his wife acted as attorney for his mother to obtain a widow's pension. The widow deposed that Samuel died 7 June 1834 at Waterford, that her husband had a Revolutionary War pension, that she had married Samuel Wilson in June 1784 at Cambridge, Washington county, NY and that her brother, Elihu Ward was the only surviving witness to that marriage. (Revolutionary War Pension Application W16474)

There were five large, unrelated families with the Wilson surname residing in the Hebron area for the 1790 census. With only fragmentary records available we have been unable to identify the descendants of Samuel Wilson. (New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 130 [October 1976] p. 304)

Only known child of Samuel and Ann (Ward) Wilson, there probably were others.

7-65 i. JOSEPH, born circa 1792. In 1834 when he wrote regarding his mother's pension he was residing in Waterford, Saratoga Co., NY.

V06-021 JOSEPH WILSON (Joseph, Joseph, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Malden, MA (VR) 27 Aug. 1756, second child and only son of Capt. Joseph and Huldah (Blaney) Wilson, the last of his line to be born in Malden. He died at Marblehead, MA (VR) 1 Aug. 1821 ae. 64 years, "collector of customs for this district." His obit appeared in the Columbian Centinel of 4 Aug. 1821.

He married at Marblehead (VR) on 15 Sept. 1735, termed "of Bath" LYDIA WAITE, she died at Marblehead (VR) 9 Apr. 1838 ae. 83 years.

The only connection we have found between the birth in Malden and the death in Marblehead comes from file no. 142705 in D. A. R. Lineage Books which states; Joseph Wilson (1756-1821) served as gunner in Capt. Samuel R. Trevett's company of artillery at the Lexington Alarm and at the Battle of Bunker Hill. He was born in Malden and died in Marblehead, Mass." We are unable to verify this service. There is no record of a company of men headed by Capt. Samuel Russell Trevett, nor any other company from Marblehead, which responded to the Lexington Alarm. (Hambrick-Stowe and Smerlas, [1976] Massachusetts Militia Companies and Officers in the Lexington Alarm) The only record found in the Massachusetts Archives of Trevett's company of artillery is a muster roll for the period 8 May 1775 to 21 June 1775 during which the Battle of Bunker Hill was fought. The name of Joseph Wilson does not appear.

We have no problem with the concept that Joseph's family used their influence to obtain the post of Customs Collector for Joseph, first at Bath, ME and later at Marblehead but we can find nothing to validate this theory. This Joseph Wilson does not appear as head of a household in the 1790 census of either Maine or Massachusetts.

On 7 Aug. 1821 Joseph Wilson, Esq. of Marblehead, eldest son, was given administration on the estate of Joseph Wilson, late of Marblehead, who died intestate on 1 Aug. 1821. Heirs-at-law were listed as Lydia Wilson, widow, Joseph Wilson, Lydia Wilson, Elizabeth W. Wilson and George Wilson. George Wilson of Marblehead, merchant, was given administration on 3 Oct. 1838 for the estate of Lydia Wilson, late of Marblehead, widow, deceased, intestate. (Essex Probate Court Records, files 30130 and 30133)

The 1850 census of Willington lists Samuel Wilson, a farmer age 67 years with his wife Abigail, age 54 years and their children William, age 20 years, a shoemaker and Lucia, age 18 years. Abigail was born in New York, all of the others were born in Connecticut. It is noted that his age in the census agrees with his age at death but not with the date recorded for his birth.

This family appears to have been very poor. Neither Samuel or his wife has a gravestone, there is no record of property passing through the probate court, Samuel's name does not appear in the Ashford land records and no one bothered to record the births of his children. We have not examined the Willington land records.

He soon sold most of this property, he was in Granby, Oswego Co. on 15 Oct. 1818 when Cyril Wilson and Lovissa his wife sold the remainder of their land in Hannibal. (Oswego County Land Records, A-15, A-17, A-38, A-145 and B-279) Cyril is not listed among the heads of families for the 1820 census of Oswego county.

On 12 Oct. 1850 Jonathan Wilson, age 68 years, a resident of Geauga Co., OH applied for bounty land, his claim was handled by his son, Joel W. Wilson of Tiffin, Seneca Co., OH. On 4 Apr. 1855 when he again applied for bounty land, he was residing in Summit Co., OH, his application being attested by Thompson Clark and Sullivan S. Wilson. She is probably the Sarah Upham who was born at Leicester 28 June 1776, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Crowl) Upham. (Frank K. Upham, Descendants of John Upham [1892] p. 97) Although this birth date does not agree with the age given on her gravestone it does match the age Sarah gave to the census taker in 1850.

The 1800 census of Bridgewater lists Daniel Wilson heading a household comprised of one male under 10 years of age, one male 16-26 years, one female under 10 years and one female 16-26 years of age.

On 18 Apr. 1878 Lydia Wilson, age 85 years, of Colchester, in her application for a widow's pension deposed that she was the widow of Durfee Wilson who enlisted at Cambridge, VT on 25 Sept. 1813 as sergeant in Capt. Reuben had a third wife, ELIZABETH -----.

Reuben Wilson was the founder of the town which bears his name. His first-hand account, published on page 548 of History of the Holland Purchase relates; "Emigrating from Massachusetts I first settled in Canada, near Toronto, but remained there only three years. In April 1810, I embarked with my family consisting of a wife and five children....in a bateau, and crossed the lake. I took up one hundred and seventy acres of land at $2.50 per acre, paying nothing down, but agreeing to pay five percent in a few months... My first seventy acres of improvement was made pretty much with my own hands, after that my sons were old enough to assist me... I build a grist mill in 1825... For anything we had to send off, Montreal was our market until the Erie Canal was finished."

Contrary to his first-hand account it appears that Reuben resided for several years in New York state before he went to Canada. His three oldest children are all listed in the 1850 census as being born in New York and the gravestone of Oliver says he was born at Richfield, Otsego Co., NY. Reuben, age 73 years, a farmer born in Massachusetts, is listed in the 1850 census living with his wife Elizabeth, age 64 years, also born in Massachusetts.

History of Niagara County, New York relates on page 385; "the town was named after Reuben Wilson, and his descendants are still prominent in the town. He was the first supervisor, elected at the initial town meeting which was held on 6 Apr. 1819 and he served in that capacity for ten years from 1819 to 1829 while Luther Wilson, his son, served in that office for another ten years from 1833 to 1842 and again from 1855 to 1856 while Reuben F. Wilson was supervisor in 1851. Thus members of the Wilson family held the office of supervisor for more than twenty years in the town which bears their name."

Reuben died at Wilson on 10 Mar. 1862 testate, leaving as heirs-at-law his widow Elizabeth and the children Calvin, Luther, Oliver and Orrin, all of Wilson and Luron D. of Lockport, also Voluntine Wilson and Almeron Wilson, both of Yates, Orleans Co., NY being children of a deceased son Alexander, and Ezra Cole, age 19 years, the only child of a deceased daughter, Lucinda, wife of Orrin Cole. (Niagara Surrogates Court Records, file box 5)

This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 17 Feb. 1815 whereby Thomas Quinton of Ware deeded to Mary Wilson of Ware, "my daughter, wife of Chester Wilson" a certain tenement in Ware, being the same where she now dwells, adjoining land which Thomas Wilson bought of Phineas Dunbar. (Hampshire County Land

Chester was living alone in Belchertown for the 1800 census, he does not appear as head of a household in subsequent censuses of Massachusetts. Chester and Polly had their first child born in Belchertown in 1801, they apparently removed soon thereafter to Ware. On 31 July 1816 Mary Wilson of Ware, seamstress purchased of Daniel Gould a small parcel of land in Plainfield, MA, on 26 Mar. 1842 she conveyed this land to Mary S. Thomas Wilson, the second by his second wife Elizabeth (Sumner). His gravestone in Dwight Cemetery, Belchertown says he died 10 Feb. 1844, ae. 62 years. This is incorrect, the Springfield Republican for 11 Feb. 1843 reported that Mr. Daniel Wilson died at Springfield 10 Feb. 1843 ae. 64 years.

He married, intention recorded at Pelham, MA on 8 Dec. 1810 VESTA HARKNESS who was born there (VR) 29 July 1790, daughter of John and Keziah (Edson) Harkness and sister of Martha and John Harkness who married Daniel's siblings. Vesta died at Enfield, CT (GS) 5 May 1872 ae. 82 years.

Capt. Daniel Wilson, frequently termed "gentleman" was unfortunate in his business affairs. On 16 Nov. 1840 the court transferred to the creditors of Daniel Wilson of Belchertown, gentleman, an insolvent debtor, all the estates of which he was possessed on 28 Oct. 1840 except such parts which by law were exempt from attachment. (Hampshire County Land Records, 88:422)

The 1850 census of Springfield lists the widow Vesta Wilson, age 60 years, living with her children; Hannah 33, Elizabeth E. 26, Anna H. 23, Daniel K. 21 and Olive A. age 19 years. Daniel was listed as being a tailor, occupations for women were not shown in the 1850 census.

He was born at New Lebanon, NY 20 Apr. 1827, died at Hartford, CT 5 Dec. 1861, son of Dr. Isaac and Sally (Cornwall) Everest. (Winifred Lovering Holman, Descendants of Andrew Everest [1955] p. 223) Olive and George did not have children.

V07-019 DAVID WILSON (Jacob, Jacob, Jacob, Jacob, Joseph, Jacob) born at Belchertown, MA (VR) on 1 June 1788, seventh child of Jacob and Molly (Dodge) Wilson. He died at Richland, Oswego Co., NY between 1827 and 1830.

After the death of her husband she removed to Lima, Grant Co., WI where she died 18 June 1860, buried in Whig Cemetery, Platteville, Grant Co., WI. (L. N. Parker, Genealogy of Capt. Israel Jones [1902] p. 93) It is not incompatible with the foregoing to believe that she was the JEMIMA HENDRICKSON, age 62 years, born in Connecticut who was living with her son Jacob for the 1850 census of Richland.

David is listed in the 1820 census of Richland heading a household comprised of one male under 10 years of age, two males 10-16 years and one male 26-45 years of age, also two females under 10 years and one female 26-45 years of age. The 1850 census of Hanover lists J. Wilson, a farmer born in Massachusetts, aged 58 years, with his wife Basheba, age 56 years, born in New York and their children; Byron 20, Cornelia and Cordelia, twins age 17 years, Ruth 15 and William H. age 12 years. These children, which are listed on the page following their parents, are incorrectly given the family name of Rice in the final draft of the census.

Jacob Wilson made his will at Hanover on 4 Apr. 1861. He named his widow Nersheba to be executor and mentions his children; Cornelius Wilson, Ruth Wilson, William Wilson, Emily Strope and Cordelia Bagley, also his grandchildren (not named) by his deceased daughter Emeline Bagley and by his deceased son, Jacob Wilson. (Chautauqua Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book 4, p. 208)

He married, intention recorded at Belchertown on 26 Mar. 1803, PERSIS TYLER. Willard I. T. Brigham, on page 255 of Descendants of Job Tyler of Andover, Massachusetts [1912] says the bride was Sally Tyler, daughter of Isaac and Clarissa (Green) Tyler of Belchertown. Persis survived her husband by many years and in 1860 was living in Lee with her son Wright.

Based upon the listings in the 1850 census which show the oldest son born in Massachusetts and the second son born in New York we conclude that Roswell and Persis settled in Lee about 1805. Roswell K. Wilson signed his will there on 8 Mar. 1829, it was proven 15 Oct. 1829. He named his wife Persis to be executor and mentioned all his children; Daniel, Fowler, Mary, Asa, Aseneath, Sally, Wright and Roswell. (Oneida Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book 3, p. 265)

APPENDIX

The following individuals are thought to have been related to members of this family but their connection has not been established.

==========

V-001 CYRIL WILSON born circa 1780, living in Compton, P. Q. Canada when his daughter was born. In our data bank of over 40,000 individuals having the Wilson surname the only ones given the name of Cyril belong to this family. We believe that it is unlikely that this birth is the result of an earlier marriage of Cyril (V06-032).

Child of Cyril and ----- Wilson.

V-2 i. JERUSHA, born at Compton 24 Feb. 1801, died at Royalton, VT 17 Sept. 1884. She married at Pomfret, VT (VR) on 11 Oct. 1825 DAVID BOSWORTH who was born at Royalton 1 Feb. 1797, died at Bethel, VT 8 Jan. 1845, son of Benjamin and Barbara (Lindley) Bosworth. They had a son, Benjamin Franklin Bosworth born in 1826. (Evelyn M. Wood Lovejoy, History of Royalton, Vermont [1911] p. 693)

V-003 J---- S---- WILSON, born in Massachusetts about 1830. He was listed in the 1850 census of Homer, Cortland Co., NY, a harness-maker. Possibly he was a son of Russell (V07-041).

V-004 SIMEON G. WILSON born circa 1806, possibly a son of Sylvester (V07-024) or perhaps the same man as Simeon (V06-093). Simeon G. Wilson of Belchertown filed his intention of marriage to LUCY PUFFER at Greenfield 1 Dec. 1827. Charles Nutt, on page 78 of Descendants of George Puffer [1915] attributes this marriage to Lucy Puffer born at Swanzey, NH on 9 Jan. 1787 daughter of Simeon and Lydia (Graves) Puffer but she appears too old to fit the available facts. The wife of Simeon Wilson died at Amherst, MA (VR) in 1837 ae. 35 years. The connection with the Greenfield family has not been established.

Children of Simeon G. and Lucy (Puffer) Wilson.
V-5 i. SARAH MARTHA, born at Greenfield (VR) 4 Sept. 1828.

He is listed in the 1850 census of Homer, Cortland Co., NY, a farmer, age 52 years with his wife HANNAH (-----) age 45 years and their children Ellis, age 13 years and Jacob 7. The same family is listed in Homer for the 1860 census when Ellis was called a master carpenter.

V-10 ii. JACOB, born in New York about 1843.

V-015 FRANCIS WILSON, born in New York about 1838. He was living in Homer, Cortland Co., NY 1850 but apparently not near the residence of Horace (V07-039) or of Russell (V07-041).

V-016 GUY WILSON, born in Ohio about 1827. He was living in Northampton Township, Summit Co., OH in 1850, a carpenter, with his wife MARY W. (-----) who was born about 1827 in New York. He is of the right age and in the right place to be a brother of Sullivan S. (V07-089) and thus a son of Jonathan (V06-034) who died at Northampton in 1855.

V-017 ROXANNE WILSON, born in Ohio about 1837 she was living with Jonathan (V06-034) for the 1850 census of Bainbridge Township, Geauga Co., OH. She is probably either his daughter or his grand-daughter.

The 1850 census shows him living in Concord, Jackson Co., MI, a farmer age 49 years with his wife HANNAH (-----) who was aged 40 years, born in New Hampshire. Possibly this is a second marriage for Cyril (V07-084) or perhaps he is a son of Cyril (V-001).
Children of Cyril and Hannah (-----) Wilson as listed in the census.
V-19 i. JOHN, born about 1836 in New Hampshire.

(George W. Montague, Montague Family in America [1886] p. 153) This listing is not valid, the man was Benjamin Nelson, see James A. Smith, Families of Amherst, Massachusetts [1984] p. 546)

V-024 SARAH WILSON, born about 1842, probably at Belchertown, MA. The 1850 census lists her there, age 8 years, residing with Sarah (Sawyer)(Currier)(Wilson V07-038) Dickinson, age 75 years.

V-027 LUCINDA WILSON of Belchertown, born circa 1816 married there (VR) 27 May 1837 NORMAN M. HARRINGTON.

V-028 ELIZABETH ANN WILSON of Belchertown, born circa 1821 recorded her intention of marriage on 27 June 1842 to GEORGE B. HALL of Palmer, MA. This intention was recorded on the same date in Palmer but the groom's name is given there as GEORGE H. BALL.

V-031 JOHN WILSON, born about 1751 died at Belchertown MA in 1818 ae. 67 years. (Belchertown Congregational Church Records) He married 8 Dec. 1793 SABRINA ALLIBEE. (Easthampton, Connecticut, Church Records) Sabra was dismissed in 1798 from the church in Easthampton to the church in Ludlow, MA and in 1815 was admitted from Ludlow to the church in Belchertown. On 5 May 1818 Francis Wilson was granted administration on the estate of John Wilson, late of Belchertown, deceased, intestate. (Hampshire Probate Court Records, file 162:23) Despite his age at death we believe there is a strong possibility that this is John (V05-019) who was born at Ashford, CT in 1747. This belief is based upon the fact that the name Francis ran in both families, but more important his son, when well over eighty years of age, found it necessary to return from California to Ashford where he must have had strong family ties.

V-032 Capt. FRANCIS WILSON, son of John (V-031) was born at Haddam, CT about 1794, baptized 8 Feb. 1795 and died at Ashford, CT 24 Dec. 1882, ae. 88 years. (Ashford Church Records) He and his first two wives were buried in Enfield, MA. 43 years (sic!) and Francis married second, at Ludlow, MA 27 Feb. 1847 MARY (Polly) FULLER, daughter of Ezekiel Fuller. Polly died (GS) 17 Sept. 1848 ae. 59 years. The 1850 census of Ludlow lists Francis Wilson, age 55 years, a farmer with his wife RACHEL (———) who was also 55 years old, and his daughter Mary R., age 12 years. Francis, at various times resided in the Massachusetts towns of Ludlow, Belchertown and Enfield where his lands were all near the point where the three towns met, a location far removed from where the other branches of this family resided in Belchertown. On 25 Sept. 1878 Francis Wilson, then residing in San Gabriel, Los Angeles Co., CA applied for a pension based upon his service from Belchertown during the War of 1812 stating that he was born in Haddam, CT and at the time of his enlistment he was 19 years of age, a farmer, 5 ft. 11 in. tall, brown hair, blue eyes and light complexion. (War of 1812 Pension Application S.O. 34020) The Ashford Congregational Church Records show that on 25 July 1880 Francis Wilson was admitted to membership with a letter from the Congregational Church in Los Angeles and that he died on 24 Dec. 1882.

V-052 MARY WILSON born at Ashford, CT 11 Apr. 1766, died at Moretown, VT 16 June 1846 ae. 80 years. Her birth is not recorded, the only mention of this woman is on page 181 of Stowell Genealogy [1922] by William H. H. Stowell which states that ALLADURAN STOWELL, born at Ashford on 10 Feb. 1766, died at Moretown 11 Apr. 1855, son of Jonathan and Rhoda (Wilson V05-023) Stowell married 7 May 1789 Mary (Wilson) Richardson, widow of ----- RICHARDSON. They had ten (Stowell) children, all but the youngest born at Acworth, NH; Jan. 1790, Polly 1791, John 1793, Lucinda 1795, Harvey 1797, Duran 1799, Rhoda 1801, Hannah 1803, Persis 1805 and lastly a son born 1807. It appears that Mary is either a sister of her mother-in-law or a daughter of Isaac (J04-xxx) Wilson who had the birth of a child in February 1767, recorded at Ashford only eight months after the date given for Mary's birth.
